Angels and Demons in the Dead Sea Scrolls

Dr. Newsom, recent President of the Society of Biblical Literature and a leading scholar in Dead Sea Scrolls research, integrates philological acumen with contemporary theoretical approaches to Judaism in the Greco-Roman period. Newsom’s exemplary scholarly accomplishments include seven books and scores of articles, book chapters, translations, encyclopedia articles, and reviews. Author of The Self as Symbolic Space: Constructing Identity and Community at Qumran, Brill, 2004, she also coedited the New Oxford Annotated Bible (Oxford University Press, 2001; revised 2010) and published critical editions of the Dead Sea texts such as Qumran Cave 4: VI; Poetical and Liturgical Texts, Part 1 (Clarendon Press 1998) and Songs of the Sabbath Sacrifice: A Critical Edition (Scholars Press 1985). Newsom has received several prestigious research fellowships, including grants from the National Endowment for the Humanities and the Henry Luce Foundation, and has won several awards for excellence in teaching and mentoring.

Sponsored by the Taft Research Center, Department of Judaic Studies, Cincinnati Museum Center, Ohio Humanities Council, and the Mayerson Jewish Community Center.
