

Valentine House

Resident Advisor Application Form: Spanish _____ French _____

One Resident Advisor (R.A.) occupies a single room provided free of charge on each residential floor of Valentine House in order to serve as the advisor/teacher for the students living on that floor. One floor is designated as Spanish speaking only and one is designated as French speaking only. Consequently, the R.A. must demonstrate native or near native fluency in either French or Spanish. It is the responsibility of the R.A. to orient the residents to the culture and to assure adherence to the language of that floor. The R.A. teaches one conversation course for the residents of the floor which meets once a week for two hours. The R.A. also helps plan appropriate social and cultural events for the residents of Valentine House and the Stratford Community. The principal duties include:

- continued residence in Valentine House throughout the year with exceptions for university holidays.
- regular weekly meetings with the Valentine House residents.
- communication and enforcement of the Stratford and Valentine House rules and policies.
- instruction in a weekly two-hour one-credit conversation course conducted in the designated language of the floor.
- regular participation in planning and coordinating social and cultural events.
