

DIVERSITY & CULTURAL COMMUNICATION

This concentration examines the role of communication in constructing, reflecting, and managing global diversity issues. Themes related to class, culture, gender, identity, race, and sexual orientation are analyzed and discussed.

WELCOME TO THE COMMUNICATION DEPARTMENT

Follow @commuc on social media, attend CommTogether & meet with a Comm advisor.

CHOOSE FROM THESE COMMUNICATION COURSES

- 1050 Freshman Seminar: Comm & Culture
- 2028 Communication & Popular Culture*
- 2049 Communication & Social Justice
- 3048 Nonverbal Communication (1076)
- 3049 Intercultural Communication
- 3077 Communication, Identity & Sport***
- 4005 Communication Ethics*
- 4006 Organizational Diversity
- 4012 Family Communication*
- 4013 Gender & Communication***
- 4040 Cultural Studies in Communication
- 4043 Theories of Interpersonal Comm*
- 4048 Media & Identity***
- 4050 Comm, Culture & Globalization
- 5004 Health Communication
- 5006 Capstone in Comm & Diversity

Parentheses = Prerequisite Asterisk = Online section available
Bold = Fulfills Department's Diversity & Inclusion Requirement

DEVELOP CAREER EDUCATION SKILLS

Take PD 2070 during your sophomore year to learn about experiential learning opportunities.

POTENTIAL INTERNSHIPS & CO-OP JOBS

Anthony Munoz Foundation
Leukemia & Lymphoma Society
Lighthouse Youth Center
Underground Railroad Freedom Center

MEET OUR RESEARCH FACULTY

Tayo Banjo Stephen Haas Ron Jackson Shaunak Sastry

EXPLORE COMPLEMENTARY ELECTIVES

Minors, certificates, and courses in cultural studies (Africana, Asian, Judaic & Latin-American), international affairs, sociology, anthropology, human resources, and women's gender & sexuality studies complement this concentration. Consider:

- |           |                               |
|-----------|-------------------------------|
| AFST-1001 | Intro to Africana Studies     |
| AIST-2081 | Intro to Chinese Culture      |
| ANTH-1001 | Cultural Anthropology         |
| POL-1080  | Intro International Relations |
| PSYC-2011 | Psychology of Gender          |
| SOC-3073  | Sociology of Race             |
| SOC-4084  | Social Inequality             |
| WGS-2001  | Women, Culture & Power        |
| WGS-2030  | Intro Black Women's Studies   |
| WGS-3010  | Gender/Race/Class/Sexuality   |

CONSIDER JOINING A STUDENT GROUP

CommuniCATS provides social networking and professional mentoring opportunities, engages in community service, assists in the transition from student to alumnus, and promotes the identity and value of your Communication degree.

CONSIDER GRADUATE EDUCATION

Option 1: Majors accepted into our 4+1 Program take graduate classes their senior year. After earning their BA degree, students in good standing are formally admitted to the graduate program and complete their MA degree in one additional year.

OR

Option 2: Most traditional graduate programs require 2 additional years of education. These options complement a Communication BA:

- MA in Anthropology
- MA in Gender & Cultural Studies
- MA in Social Work

POTENTIAL CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

- Change Management Consultant
- Chief Diversity Officer
- Community Outreach Manager
- Director of Community Engagement
- Diversity Recruitment
- Higher Education Study Abroad
- Human Services Administrator
- Manager of Diversity & Inclusion
- Public Affairs Officer
- Social Worker
- Volunteer Coordinator

CONGRATULATIONS UC GRADUATE!

Apply for graduation during your final semester (week 4 deadline), complete Communication Department's exit survey, and attend annual CommCeleb awards banquet in April.