

Proposal for Graduate Level Readings/Study

This form must be completed and approved by the faculty member involved and the Director of Graduate Studies in English at some time before the end of the priority registration period preceding the semester in which the work will be undertaken. Late proposals will, as a rule, not be accepted. Topics proposed for Independent Readings or Independent Study may not be ones covered in regularly scheduled classes available during a student's course of study. Upon completion, return this form to the English business office located in McMicken Hall room 248 for processing.
