

Applying for Fifth-Year Funding

Some fifth-year funding is available in the form of teaching two classes per semester at adjunct pay, with the possibility of a small supplement. Applications for this funding should be turned in to the Director of Graduate Studies for consideration by the Graduate Studies Committee. The deadline to apply is March 15 in the fourth year of study.

Applications should include:

1. CV
2. Teaching philosophy
3. A statement of no more than 750 words about the status of the dissertation and plans for its completion