Graduate Student News

Anne Delano Steinert was awarded the Cincinnati Preservation Association’s Preservation Education Award for her Finding Kenyon Barr exhibit.

Faculty News

UC undergraduates in History Club and Elizabeth Frierson’s classes toured the USAF Museum in Dayton. They wore poppies from the VFW in recognition of the centenary of the conclusion of the First World War. At the museum, they received a WWI gallery talk by the museum historian and a behind-the-scenes talk on stored artifacts.

Sigrun Haude presented the paper “Discourses on War and Peace in German Schreibkalendern (Almanacs) During the First Half of the Seventeenth Century” at the Sixteenth Century Society & Conference in Albuquerque, NM.

Rob Haug presented the paper “Heroics and Rebellion in the Stories of `Abdallah b. Khazim and the Conquest of Khurasan” as part of the panel “Frontier Myth Making and the Eastern Lands of the Islamic World.” The panel came together at the annual meeting of the Middle East Studies Association in San Antonio, TX.

Willard Sunderland presented “The Greatest Emancipator: Abolition and Empire in Tsarist Russia” at the Russian Studies Seminar at Ohio State on November 30th. He has been awarded a Taft Center Fellowship for next academic year to complete work on his book on Russia and the world in the age of Peter the Great. During November, he also completed a manuscript review for Harvard University Press.
Rebecca Wingo presented on digital public history and participated in a workshop on community engagement at St. Mary’s University in San Antonio.

Phi Beta Kappa

History Major and Senior Seth Cebula with Professor Jeff Zalar at the fall induction of Phi Beta Kappa, the nation’s oldest academic honor society. Congratulations, Seth! “Love of Wisdom is the Guide of Life”

Friends of UC History Fall Benefit The Friends of UC History hosted their fifth annual Fall Benefit on November 10th in the airy, modern space of the Niehoff Urban Studio on Short Vine in Clifton. It was a happy evening of celebrating History and thanking our many generous friends, emeriti, and alumni for their faithful support. Photographic evidence below!

Doloris Learmonth and Barbara Ramusack

Tracy Teslow, Maura O’Connor, & Sigrun Haude