Film and Media Studies Graduate Certificate

Course Offerings Spring 2021

FILM Graduate Courses:

FILM 7001-001 Film & Media Studies Seminar (Special Topic: Global Film and Media)
Partially Distanced T/Th 11:00am-12:20pm

FILM 7001-001 Topics in Film Studies (Special Topic: Game Studies)
Partially Distanced M/W/F 2:30-3:25pm

FILM 7005-002 Topics in Film Studies (Cross listed with ANTH 7074: Seeing as Social Practice)
Partially Distanced T/Th 2:00-3:20pm

FILM 7095-001 Graduate Internship in Film and Media Studies
Asynchronous Independent project. Please contact program director Prof. Michael Gott for information.

Graduate Certificate Electives:

ANTH 7074: Seeing as Social Practice
Partially Distanced T/Th 2:00-3:20pm

ANTH 7079: Beauty, Race, Gender, and Power
Partially Distanced T/Th 9:30-10:50am

COMM 7002: Mediated Communication and the Individual (Topic: Media Effects)
100% Distanced Asynchronous

WGS 7039: Gender, Sexuality and Culture (Spring 2021: special emphasis on Visual Cultures)
100% Distanced Synchronous M/W 9:30-10:45am

There may be other courses that the graduate program director isn’t aware of that could count toward the certificate. If you are taking a course with substantial film or media studies content that should count as a certificate elective, please contact graduate program director Prof. Valerie Weinstein for information.