

Religious Studies Certificate

The Certificate in Religious Studies provides a multidisciplinary introduction to the study of religion by examining religious traditions through the methods of literary analysis, philosophy, sociology, anthropology and history. Furthermore, incorporating courses from several departments, the certificate fosters critical thinking by exposing students to diverse methodologies and perspectives. Students will deepen their conceptual understanding of religion as well as familiarize them with various religions.

Declare the Religious Studies Certificate before you begin! Go to http://www.artsci.uc.edu/students/undergrad/forms/declare_major.html to declare today.

Requirements: A total of 24 credit hours in six categories.

1. Required Courses – 9 Hours	Semester	Grade
• ANTH 2068 - Religion in Culture	_____	_____
or ANTH 1001 – Cultural Anthropology	_____	_____
or ANTH 1002 – Cultural Anthropology	_____	_____
• JUDC 2028 - Introduction to Biblical Studies	_____	_____
• RELG 1001- Introduction to Religious Studies	_____	_____
or PHIL 2030 – Philosophy & Religion	_____	_____
2. Religious Traditions – 3 Hours	Semester	Grade
• _____	_____	_____
3. Religious Texts and Literary Approaches – 3 Hours	Semester	Grade
• _____	_____	_____
4. Social, Cultural, and Historic Perspectives – 3 Hours	Semester	Grade
• _____	_____	_____
5. Thought, Philosophy and Spirituality – 3 Hours	Semester	Grade
• _____	_____	_____
6. Free Elective – 3 Hours	Semester	Grade
• _____	_____	_____

Submit the signed form to Judaic Studies Office, 3428 French Hall West, once your coursework is complete.
Questions? Contact the Judaic Studies Department at (513) 556.2297.

Student Name: _____

Student M#: _____

Advisor Name: _____

Advisor Approval Date: _____

Advisor Signature: _____