

The 52nd Annual Cincinnati Philosophy Colloquium: "Embodied Awareness"

Schedule of Events

Friday

12:00-1:00: Welcome and Introduction/Buffer Lunch

The Science of Embodied Awareness

1:00-1:50: Lawrence Shapiro, "Embodiment and Awareness"

1:50-2:00: Patrick Nalepka (Psychology) Graduate Student Presenter

2:00-2:30: Q&A and Open Discussion

2:30-2:45: Break

2:45-3:35: Robert Wilson, "Being There in the Embodied Revolution: What Is (or Remains) To Be Done?"

3:35-3:45: Ashley Walton (Psychology) Graduate Student Presenter

3:45-4:15: Q&A and Open Discussion

4:15-4:30: Break

4:30-5:20: Anthony Chemero, "Joint Experience"

5:20-5:50: Q&A and Open Discussion

6:30-8:30: Dinner for speakers

Saturday

9:00-9:30: Light Breakfast

Disorders of Embodied Awareness

9:30-10:20: Michelle Maiese, "Getting Stuck: Affective Intentionality, Temporal Desituatedness, and Depression"

10:20-10:30: Christopher Parker (Philosophy) Graduate Student Respondent

10:30-11:00: Q&A and Open Discussion

11:00-11:15: Break

11:15-12:05 Valerie Hardcastle, "Predicting the Self: Lessons from Schizophrenia"

12:05-12:15: Frank Faries (Philosophy) Graduate Student Respondent

12:15-12:45: Q&A and Open Discussion

12:45-2:00: Lunch (on own)

Social Cognition and Embodied Awareness

2:00-2:50: Shannon Spaulding, "How We Think and Act Together"

2:50-3:00: Sahar Heydari Fard (Philosophy) Graduate Student Respondent

3:00-3:30: Q&A and Open Discussion

3:30-3:45: Break

3:45-4:35: Donald F. Gustafson Memorial Lecture

Albert Newen, "Embodied Awareness of Self and Other"

4:35-4:45: Hannah Douglas (Psychology) Graduate Student Respondent

4:45-5:15: Q&A and Open Discussion

6:30-8:30: Dinner for speakers

Lunch on Friday and Breakfast on Saturday will be provided to all attendees.