

FRIENDS OF WOMEN'S STUDIES LIBRARY FUND

Holidays, birthdays, anniversaries, special occasions, or just showing someone that you care requires a special gift.

The Friends of Women's Studies Library Fund may be just the answer!

A fine library collection is essential to the Center for Women's Studies, its program, its graduate students, and its undergraduates. This quality is increasingly difficult to maintain in the current era of University budget cutbacks. We must keep our support strong and steady. Through the years, gifts from the Friends have amounted to nearly one quarter of the Women's Studies Library budget.

Your donation of $30.00 or more will honor, remember, or thank a special person and add a new book to the University of Cincinnati's Women's Studies Library Collection. (A larger gift encourages matching funds.)

Members of Friends may view or check out any books by contacting Sally Moffitt at sally.moffitt@uc.edu.

Please send your check, made out to UC Foundation, with a completed Friends of Women's Studies Library Collection Donation Form (below) to:
